Bread & Wine in Franschoek

Bread & Wine, Franschoek. “For lunch I recommend (this eatery) on the Moreson Estate, where the chef is Neil Jewell, a transplanted Englishman known as Mr Charcuterie in the Franschoek Valley. His wagyu bresaola and biltong (dried beef) and mouth-watering cauliflower cheese risotto are triumphs.”

Môreson is a little slice of magic. A tranquil paradise located at the end of the aptly named Happy Valley Road. The Môreson environment is the perfect retreat from the hectic pace of modern day life.

The atmosphere and setting will transport you back to a time when your life was less cluttered. You will find that shortly after arriving you are standing a little taller, walking a little slower and smiling a lot more.
